Re: A.C. et. al. v. NYC Dep't of Educ., No. 22-cv-5808 (KPF)(BCM)

Dear Judge Failla:

I am Special Assistant Corporation Counsel in the office of Corporation Counsel, Sylvia O. Hinds-Radix, attorney for Defendant in the matter referenced above, wherein Plaintiff seeks solely attorneys' fees, costs and expenses for legal work on an administrative hearing under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act 20 U.S.C. §1400, et. seq. ("IDEA"), as well as for this action.

I write to respectfully request the following:

1) Adjournment of the Initial Pre-Trial Conference ("IPC") scheduled for December 15, 2022 and attendant deadline for submission of a Case Management Plan ("CMP") sine die. This is the first request for an adjournment and Plaintiff consents. The parties would like an opportunity to see if we can settle this action. To that end, Plaintiff provided Defendants with their billing records, which Defendants are currently reviewing. Once the review is completed the parties will need time to engage in settlement negotiations, and are hopeful that the matter will be resolved without the need to utilize Court resources. The parties have a successful track record of resolving IDEA fees cases without the need for court intervention.

2) A further 45-day extension, nunc pro tunc, to respond to the complaint—from December 1 to January 16, 2023. This is the second request for an extension. The first request was granted on I apologize for overlooking the December 1 deadline. It was inadvertent, and due to an administrative oversight and my absence from the office to handle a family medical emergency, and

3) A further status letter due in 30 days, by January 9, 2022 updating the Court on the status of settlement negotiations .

Thank you for considering this submission

Respectfully submitted,

Simone Nicholson
